

Search Newspapers

Browse Newspapers

I am looking for

Advanced Search ▾

Home &gt; Eastern Daily Mail and Straits Morning Advertiser &gt; 30 March 1906 &gt; Page 3 &gt; Untitled

Untitled

Eastern Daily Mail and Straits Morning Advertiser\u000d\u000aEastern Daily Mail and Straits Morning Advertiser, 30 March 1906, Page 3

Article also available on Microfilm Reel NL2975

★ Add to Citation

Previous ArticleNext ArticlePrevious PageNext Page

THE British India mail steamer Lunka made the run up to Penang last week in a trifle under 24 hours.

PALL SINGH, a Sikh, has been convicted of the wilful murder of a Sikh boy in Perak and sentenced to be hanged.

THE Chinese Community of Papan are going to establish a school at Papan under the headmastership of Mr. Goon Seah Sen of Penang.

THE Cantata, "Rose Maiden," given by the Penang Choral Society at the Drill Hall there on Friday night last, was a great success.

SIAM is getting on. A magazine for ladies is to appear next month. The "Kul-Satri" is to be published monthly, and is to deal with all matters of interest to ladies.

A CRISIS has occurred in France owing to the receipt by the Government of requests from fifteen thousand clergymen for pensions as the result of the Separation Bill.

THE racehorse "Cadenas," belonging to Mr. Alma Baker, will go to Taiping to be gotten into shape for the local Derby. Great results are expected from this horse.

THE Malay Mail believes that within two years from now, there will probably be 5,000 acres planted up with rubber in the district stretching from West Country, Kajang, to the Ayer Hitam road.

HIS Lordship, Sir Lionel Cox, C. J. was occupied during the whole of the forenoon of yesterday in hearing summonses in Chambers. The well of the Court was crowded and the solicitors' table was fully occupied. It is unusual to see so many members of the

Information ^

Newspaper:
Eastern Daily Mail and Straits Morning Advertiser\u000d\u000aEastern Daily Mail and Straits Morning Advertiser

Date:
30 March 1906

Reel Number:
NL2975

Share

Table of Contents ^

< Previous | Page 3 ▾ | Next >View Full Table of Contents >

usual to see so many in the legal fraternity in Court at one time engaged in purely civil cases.

THE local shipping community will learn with regret that Mr. H. Oehlers, chief engineer and part owner of the s.s. "Hong Wan", met with a serious accident yesterday. He has a great hobby for gardening and owns a large estate in Bukit Timah, on which are planted many fruit trees. He climbed one, to pick some fruit, from which he had a nasty fall, fracturing several ribs. Owing to his advanced age his condition is considered critical, three doctors being in attendance.

Related Articles

No related article found.

