

[In order to guard against imposition, notices of Births, Marriages, and Deaths must be authenticated by some respectable person to ensure their insertion.]

BIRTHS.

HARRIS.—On the 18th January, at Booligal Station, New South Wales, the wife of J. J. Harris—a daughter.

REDFERN.—On the 22nd January, at Mernda Private Hospital, Seymour, to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Redfern, "Chatsworth-park," Tabilk—a daughter.

WHITE.—On the 19th January, at Dr. Stang's private hospital, Loch, the wife of John White, Glen Forbes—a son.

MARRIAGES.

SUTHERLAND—ARMSTRONG.—On the 5th January, at Colombo, by the Rev. Alexander Dunn, Donald Sutherland, Broome Estate, Kajang, Federated Malay States, second son of the late Captain Sutherland and Mrs. Sutherland, Paisley, Scotland, to Bessie Alexandra, third daughter of the late Alexander Armstrong, Warrambeen, and Mrs. Armstrong, North Brighton.

THOMSON—MURRAY.—On the 22nd January, by the Rev. Mr. Heathershaw, John Thomson, of Margaret-street, Moonee Ponds, to Margaret, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Henry Murray, late of Maryborough, Victoria.

WALKER—REDFEARN.—On the 27th December, 1906, at St. Agnes's Church, Glenhuntly, by the Rev. W. A. Phillips, George M., eldest son of J. A. Walker, Caulfield, to Daisy M. V., youngest daughter of James Redfearn, "Beverley," Glenhuntly.

DEATHS.

COLLIS.—On the 23rd January, Alfred Charles, the beloved husband of Susie Collis, of "Glenholm," Strezlocki, the result of a riding accident.

COLLIS.—On the 23rd January, Alfred Charles, the dearly loved son of Mrs. S. H. Collis, of "Holmhurst," South-road, Brighton.

MORRISON.—On the 23rd January, at her residence, Metropolitan Farm, Werribee, Elizabeth, the dearly beloved wife of John Wallis Morrison, of cancer.

A patient sufferer gone to rest.

SPIERS.—On the 23rd January, at the Austin Hospital, Heidelberg, Benjamin Spiers, formerly of "The Argus" office, Melbourne, aged 21 years.

TEMBY.—On the 23rd January, at "Pendarvis," Kelvin-grove, Armadale, Charlotte Emma, the beloved wife of Henry Victor Temby, aged 48 years.

WINDLE.—On the 22nd January, at 34 Mary-street, East Kew, John Windle, beloved father of Lalia and J. W., in his 86th year. A colonist of 58 years.

Peace, perfect peace.

IN MEMORIAM.

HEELIS.—In loving memory of my dear husband, E. S. Heelis, who died January 24, 1901. (Inserted by his widow.)

E. S. HOBBS, who died recently, was buried by his widow.)

FUNERAL NOTICES.

NUNNINGTON.—The Friends of the late Mrs. ELIZABETH NUNNINGTON are informed that her funeral is appointed to leave her residence, 5 Moss-street, Prahran, TO-DAY (Thursday, 24th inst.), at 3 p.m., for the St. Kilda Cemetery.

A. J. RAYBOULD, Undertaker, 234 Chapel-street, Prahran. Tel. 17, Windsor Exchange.
