IN MEMORIAM.

BROWN.—In loving remembrance of my dearest husband and our dear father, who passed away at 519 Station street, North Carlton, on the 23rd November, 1918.
Pure are the joys above the sky,
And all the region's peace.
No wanton lips or envious eye
Can see or taste the bliss.
Straight is the way, the door is straight,
That leads to joys on high;
'Tis but a few that find the gate,
While crowds mistake, and die.
—(Inserted by his loving wife, Catherine Brown, and sons, Archibald and William.)

BROWN.—In sad but loving memory of my adored father, who passed away at 519 Station street, North Carlton, on the 23rd of November, 1918.
The blow was sudden, the shock severe;
We little thought his death was so near.
Only those who have lost are able to tell
The pain at the heart at not saying farewell.
There is no love like father's.
Though we seek for it in vain,
Though we may be loved by others,
Love like father's never comes again.
Forget him? No, I never will.

Love like father's never comes again.

Forget him? No, I never will.

I loved him in life; in death I do the same.

—(Inserted by his only daughter, May Cumming Johns.)

BYRNE.—In loving memory of dear mother, who died on the 23rd November, 1916; also dear Will, who died on the 22nd of April, 1914; also dear Albert, who died on 21st March, 1907.

and our father, both of whom passed away on 23rd November, 1918, at Nicholson street, East Brunswick.

In the silence thou has vanished,

I am lonely, left so lone.

Canst thou see how much I miss thee

In that far-off, distant home?

Do you still remember, far-off or near,

The faithful heart that is waiting here?

When the morning breaks and the shadows flee,

And the pain is past, will you come for me?

—(Inserted by his loving wife Annie, and sons William and Frank.)

MARSHALL.—In loving memory of Foster Marshall, who passed away at Glenferrie, November 22, 1918.

An old resident of Geelong.

MORRIS.—A loving tribute to the memory of our mother, who left us four years ago. (A. Morris, St. Kilda.)

ORGAN.—Passed peacefully away on the 22nd November, 1918, Elizabeth Organ, faithful, loving wife of John Treavor Organ.

One year ago no tongue can tell

How anxiously we stood

Beside dear sister Lizzie's bed,

To save her if we could.

With tears we saw her sinking,

We watched her fade away.

And our hearts are sadly aching

For the dear one who passed away.

Weep not that her toils are ended,

Weep not that her race is run;

God grant we may rest as calmly

When our work, like her's, is done.

—(Inserted by her sorrowing relatives and friends.)

PETER.—In loving memory of my dear wife and our mother, Annie, who passed away on 23rd November, 1916, at Ythan, East St. Kilda.

PETERS.—In memory of my friend, who died November 23, 1916.

Ever remembered and loved.

Behind all shadows standeth God.

—(A.B.)

PETRIE.—In loving remembrance of our dear father, John Story Petrie, who died at Frankston on the 22nd of November, 1917, also our loved mother, Alice Anne Petrie, passed away at Frankston on the 22nd of March 1903.

The years will bring the changes,

But still within our hearts

We will keep our parents' memory

A sacred thing apart.

—(Inserted by their loving daughter, son-in-law, Jessie R., Joseph Thomson, and grand-daughters.)

SAMPSON.—In fondest memory of Annie Catherine, beloved wife of Harold Sampson, passed away November 22, 1918, at Leicester, Mayfield grove, Malvern.

We set out together, mate o' mine,

When youth was in its prime;

Life—the path that lay before us,

Life—the hill we had to climb—

We neither of us knew the road,

How long the journey, great the load;

Nor I how deep the debt I owed

To God, for mate o' mine.

Nor I how deep the debt I owed
To God, for mate o' mine,

—(Harold Sampson.)

SAMPSON.—In sincere and loving memory of our darling mother, who passed away peacefully at "Leicester," Malvern, on November 22.

Dearly loved, sadly missed,
We cannot clasp thy tender hand,
Thy voice we cannot hear;
Yet in our dreams we see thy face,
Shine bright 'midst starlight clear.
Though angels took thee from our sphere,
To yonder realm divine,
The link that bound us here below
Still binds our hearts to thine.

—(Inserted by her loving son and daughter-in-law, Harold and Ruby Sampson.)

SAMPSON.—In fond and dearest memory of our dear mother (other mam), who passed peacefully home on the 22nd November, 1918.

We know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
We only know we cannot drift
Beyond His love and care.

—(Inserted by her loving daughter Ethel and Will and Archie Twyford.)

SAMPSON.—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandma, who passed away at Malvern on November 22, 1918.

At rest.

—(Inserted by Bert, Edith, and Dorothy, Irving avenue, Armadale.)

SHIPWAY.—In loving memory of my dear wife and our darling mother, who passed peacefully away on the 22nd November, 1916, at Riddell's Creek.

Oh, for the touch of a vanished hand,
And the sound of a voice that is still.

—(Inserted by her loving husband and daughters, James Shipway, Amy, May, Emily, and Lily, and grand-children, Lucy, Emily, and little Maud.)

SWINGLER.—In loving memory of my beloved husband, Jordan John Swingler, and our dear father, who passed away at his residence, Trafalgar, on the 23rd November, 1912.

When we recall fond memories, dear,
Which cling to us from year to year,
Those memories, sweet, how dear they are.
Remembrance.

A trusting, faithful little heart,
Has left this weary world below;
But I know in that beautiful Mansion above
She is waiting for me to come.
Soon together we shall stand
By the crystal river;
There to join the happy throng,
Praising God for ever.

—(Inserted by her loving mother, M. A. Cuming, Ducker street, Yarraville.)
