

“The Bearded Wonder” Killed In Malaya

SINGAPORE, Mon. (AAP)

—British troops yesterday killed Liew Kon Kim (“the bearded wonder”), a notorious Communist leader in Selangor.

Soldiers of the Suffolk regiment shot Liew dead as he kept a tryst with a Communist girl friend who was also killed.

In the same engagement they also killed a Communist platoon commander with a big price on his head.

Officers said Liew had been the Suffolk regiments number one target since they came to Malaya three years ago.
