

Home > Newspaper Catalogue > Pinang Gazette and Straits Chronicle > 1920 > May > 5 > Page 7 > SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Pinang Gazette and Straits Chronicle, 5 May 1920, Page 7

Share

Save Citation

Microfilm: NL3743

<< Previous Article

Next Article >>

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Wong, mother of Mr. Gordon Wong, is on a visit to Penang for "flying week."

Mrs. E. P. Colgan, wife of Mr. E. P. Colgan, O.C., P.D., Ipoh, is due back in Ipoh this week from Home.

Captain Guy Lawford, of Batu Gajah, who is now on holiday in England, has been spending a portion of his holiday at Bournemouth.

Captain R. S. Carroll, A.F.C., and Mrs. Carroll, were guests of the Resident Councillor at dinner last night.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Pykett arrived from home this morning. Mr. Pykett joins Messrs. Barker & Co., Ltd.

Mr. A. Davidson, of Rasak Estate, Batu Tiga, has been admitted to the European Hospital, Kuala Lumpur, suffering from blackwater fever.

It is rumoured, says our Taiping correspondent, that the Hon. Mr. George Maxwell, our Resident, will be going home on leave shortly.

His Highness the Sultan of Perak is paying a visit early this month to Singapore, and during his stay there will take up his residence at Mr. M. A. Namazie's bungalow at Siglap.

Mr. W. R. Boyd, Magistrate, Taiping, has gone to Ipoh to act as Rice Agent for a few weeks. Mr. A. H. de R. Fonseca, the Revenue Auditor, has taken over the Court work in addition to his own duties.

Mr A E Moreira has left the "Times of Malaya" to take up the editorship of the "Malayan Leader," the new morning paper in Kuala Lumpur. He is being joined shortly by Mr. F. F. Cooray, also at Ipoh.

Mr. A. W. Bean, before his departure from this Colony, sent the Archdeacon a token of his long and happy sojourn in Singapore in the shape of a cheque for $1,000, which is to be spent in the Cathedral at his discretion, says the Cathedral Monthly Paper.

The subordinate staff of Messrs. R. and D. Kindersley on April 29th presented a farewell address to Mr. H. R. Moullin, who is going Home on leave. The address was inscribed on a handsome silk scroll in a frame. The ceremony took place at the Kajang Estate Manager's bungalow.

Mr. Eddy Lavalliere, international cabaret entertainer, arrived here this morning from Sumatra, where he made many successful appearances in hotels, clubs and cinemas. He is open for engagement in Penang and district. His repertoire includes many songs in English, French, Dutch, and Malay, in costume.

Mr. E. E. Colman, who returned from leave at Home by the Blue Funnel steamer Idomeneus, has come to Ipoh as First Magistrate. Mr. Colman was Official Assignee prior to going Home on leave and holds a commission in the Malay Volunteers in Penang. He is held in the very highest esteem by all Malays in the Straits Settlements where most of his career in the Civil Service has been spent.—"T.O.M."

The Carmarthenshire arrived here from London this morning, bringing as passengers for Penang Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Pykett, Jr., Mr. E. W. J. Tupper, Mr. A. K. E. Hampshire, Mrs. J. C. M. Matthews and Miss J. C. Matthews. For Singapore: Mr., Mrs. and Miss Dougherty. For Shanghai: Mr. V. H. Lanning. For Yokohama: Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bastard.

The following are passengers homeward bound by the Innasbruck on May 5:—Messrs. O. R. S. Bateman and G. Greig, Mrs. Thrupp and child, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Steven, Mr. E. Hake, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Elles, Messrs. T. Gordon, McFie, Hecker, Couper Johnston, Noullin, Rev. T. Murray, Messrs. A. W. Bralton and Goodman, Mrs. Evans and two children, Mrs. Webber, Capt. Rycroft, Messrs. Phillip and Denston, Mrs. J. S. Beldam, two Misses Laporte, Mrs. Scott and children, Messrs. Evans and Fricker, Dr. W. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Juntzon, Major and Mrs. Browell, Mr. D. Vogil, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon, Madame Gollo and two children, Mr. Scott Murray.

An interesting function took place at 5B, Scott's-road, Singapore, on Saturday afternoon. Mr. A. G. Anthony, of Messrs. Huttenbach Brothers and Co., who is going to England on leave by the s.s. Nore about the middle of this month, was 'at home' to the staff of the Company and the Chinese and Indian traders, on the occasion of the presentation of farewell addresses. Before the ceremony two group photographs were taken, then all assembled on the lawn, and the staff's address was presented, enclosed in a silver casket, to Mr. Anthony. The address of the traders was read by Mr. Koh Nam Khye, of the Singapore Trading Co., and was presented to the recipient, together with a massive silver tea and coffee set with tray, by Low Chong Joey, of Chop Yong Ngiap. Mr. Anthony suitably replied and thanked the staff and the traders for their kindness and appreciation.

