

Home > Newspaper Catalogue > The Singapore Free Press and Mercantile Advertiser (1884-1942) > 1921 > August > 4 > Page 6 > Untitled

Untitled

The Singapore Free Press and Mercantile Advertiser (1884-1942), 4 August 1921, Page 6

Share

Save Citation

Microfilm: NL1966

<<

Previous Article

Next Article

>>

His Excellency the Governor will leave Kuala Lumpur for Penang Hill on Monday evening, the 8th instant. His Excellency will travel to Prai by train, and will be in residence on Penang Hill, until about the 27th instant.

The production on Saturday by Seremban amateurs of "The Man from Toronto" was a great success.

The Bishop of Singapore is due to arrive in Penang on Thursday the 4th August and will stay at the Residency.

The star of Hope Amateurs are staging an Indian play, "The Enchanted Horse," at the Star Opera Hall in North Bridge Road, this evening.

The Perak correspondent of the Pinang Gazette says it is rumoured that Mr. R. F. Stainer, head master King Edward Seventh School, is retiring shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Wise left for Home. Mr. M. D. Fallon has returned from Australia. Mr H. R. Moullin has gone on a trip to England. Mr. W. R. F. Brock has arrived from Home. (M. M.)

Mr. A. Carson had an accident while riding Taranax last week, and is now in the Nursing Home Bangkok with injuries to the head as the result of being thrown.

It is stated that a hundred motor cycles with side cars to carry two, are to appear on Hongkong streets next year the charge for use to be 25 cents an hour for two persons.

Mr. S. A. Lane, Chairman, Harbour Boards, S.S., has proceeded to Penang in the affairs of the Penang Harbour Board and will be absent from Singapore till next week.

At the conclusion of the hearing of a Bentong Mining case at Kuala Lumpur, Mr. Justice Farrer Manby committed the second defendant, one Lee Hin, to jail for three months for perjury.

The death of Miss Sarah Davies at the age of 91, removes one of the most remarkable of those figures who have played a part in modern education. She had devoted the whole of her life to the advancement of women's education.

Messrs. Choong Thiam Poe and G. H. Goh, who are going to England to present the views of those Chinese of Malaya who are opposed to the Registration of Schools ordinance, were entertained at dinner at Penang recently by their friends.

Letters of administration have been Granted to T. E. Ford, of West Perth, Australia in the estate of the late R. E. Ford, who was temporarily in charge of the Penang branch of the A. I. C. at the time of his decease. The amount of the estate is not stated.

Mr. R. U. Tjeerdema of the Adelphi Hotel, has handed over the managing directorship to Mr. A. de Smit. Mr. Tjeerdema has been for six years in the Hotel, and his friends will wish him a pleasant time in Holland, where he will retain a directorship and look after the business.

of the Adelphi.

Under the auspices of the Straits Chinese Literary Association, Mr. E. H. Rue, M.A., S.T.B., Physical Director of the Anglo-Chinese School, will deliver a lecture tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Drill Hall of the Anglo-Chinese School, on "Impressions of my Travel in Europe." The Chairman will be the Rev. Goh Hood Keng. Ladies and Friends are welcome.

There was a quiet wedding at St. George's, Penang, at which Rev. W. Naish officiated, between Mr. James Alexander Cunnison of Kurau Estate, Bagan Serai, Krian, Perak, and Miss Dorothy Isobel Beveridge of Singapore. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod of Nebong Tebal, P.W. and a few other friends of the bridegroom were there. Mr. McLeod gave the bride away.

On the representation of Mr. Curtis, a planter in the F. M. S. the Central Pahang Planters Association has resolved to request Government that where any big game is shot or trapped because of the damage it is doing to private property, the game concerned shall be the property of the estate on which it is killed and not of Government. The request was put forward as at present after enduring the costs and hardship of big game killing the trophies remain the property of Government.