committed in Cross Street on the sixth instant.

The hearing of the case in which D. H. Anthonisz stands charged with criminal breach of trust in respect of $8.19, was commenced in the District Court on Saturday. Accused was employed at the gun powder magazine, Tanah Merah, and it is alleged that the money was obtained by the sale of coconuts from trees growing on the magazine grounds.

As the result of a pointsman turning the points in the wrong direction, the passenger train from Seremban to Kuala Lumpur was derailed at Bangi at 7.33 a.m. yesterday says Friday's Malay Mail. In consequence almost the entire train service from Kuala Lumpur was disorganised yesterday, but hard work all day made the line clear by 8 p.m. The down mail was four hours late and the up night mail to Penang was delayed over an hour. There was no delay to the down night mail. The connection to Malacca by the 12.45 p.m. train was maintained by transshipping at Bangi.
