

Government officials will never ask you to transfer money or disclose bank log-in details over a phone call. Call the 24/7 ScamShield Helpline at 1799 if you are unsure if something is a scam.

Home > Newspaper Catalogue > Singapore Free Press And Mercantile Advertiser > 1934 > March > 24 > Page 5 > Malayan Scenes And incidents

Malayan Scenes And incidents

Singapore Free Press And Mercantile Advertiser, 24 March 1934, Page 5

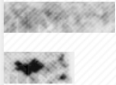

Share

Save Citation

< Previous Article Next Article >

Malayan Scenes And Incidents

Photograph taken at the Hydraulic (P.W.D.) Workshop at farewell to Mr. W. A. Turrige (Chief Inspector) Waterworks, who is leaving for home to re-join his family shortly. The group includes (left to right): Mr. W. F. Midford, Mr. A. C. Wilson, Mr. W. A. Turrige, Mr. J. A. T. Horsley.

WHERE SUMMER SUNS SHINE.—A picture just received from Sydney Harbour.

Edinburgh's tallest piper and smallest reel dancer who will be prominent in the welcome to the Scottish Delegation which is arriving in Australia in October.

The embankment, which is Kuala Lumpur's beauty spot, is the only street in the heart of the town planted with palm trees. At the extreme end is the Oriental Building which is the highest building in the Federal Capital.

Railway engineers' quarters at Seremban.

An incident in the League match between the Wiltshires and the R.A.

The Pulau Brani first eleven.

The High School, Kajang, which is the only Government English school, to be seen on the top of a hill out of Kajang Town.

The new F.M.S. Forestry Department headquarters at Kepong.

