

Home > Newspaper Catalogue > The Singapore Free Press and Mercantile Advertiser (Weekly) > 1912 > April > 25 > Page 262 > CONSECRATION OF KAJANG CHURCH.

CONSECRATION OF KAJANG CHURCH.

The Singapore Free Press and Mercantile Advertiser (Weekly), 25 April 1912, Page 262

Share

Save CitationMicrofilm: NL1606<< Previous ArticleNext Article >>

CONSECRATION OF KAJANG CHURCH.

The "Malay Mail" gives the following account of the ceremony briefly wired to us:—

With accustomed ceremony the Bishop of Singapore yesterday afternoon consecrated St. Catherine's Church, Kajang.

The church, which lies north and south, cost about $4,500, fully furnished, and the whole of the money was raised locally. Its dimensions are 48 feet by 20 feet and in shape follows a cross. The windows are small and of coloured glass.

Previous to the ceremony the District Officer, Mr. R. J. B. Clayton, gave an At Home at which the following were present:—The Bishop and his wife, the Rev. P. G. Graham and Mrs. Graham, the Colonial Chaplain of Malacca, the Rev. J. D. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Kindersley, Mr. and Mrs. Drummond-Hay, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. King, Mr. and Mrs. Johnton, Mr. and Mrs. Cole Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Joubert, Dr. and Mrs. Nicol, Mrs. F. W. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Gough, Mrs. Tedlie, Messrs. C. J. Perkins, O. P. Dakeyne, H. R. Moullin, C. P. Everard, D. St. L. Parsons, F. S. Barbe, E. N. T. Cummins, H. W. Rickeard, G. O. Turnbull, H. M. Burn Murdoch.

The Bishop, accompanied by the Rev.

K. Garnier, Colonial Chaplain of Malacca and the Revs. P. G. Graham, and Bolton walked in procession to the Church from the District Officer's residence shortly before five o'clock, the Bishop's chaplain carrying the pastoral cross. His lordship was received at the door of the Church by several of the principal inhabitants of Kajang, including Messrs. R. J. B. Clayton, R. C. M. Kindersley, P. F. Wise and O. P. Dakeyne and the Rev. P. G. Graham—the signatories to the petition.

Mrs. Clayton presided at the organ and as soon as the Bishop and processionists had entered the choir and congregation sang the 24th psalm. The church was completely filled by a congregation which numbered nearly 70 and the service was of a most impressive character. Ladies had decorated the inside of the building with flowers and plants, which made a suitable setting for the striking robes of the clergy.

The Bishop stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Kindersley at Reko Hill. This morning a communion service was held.

