SELANGOR NEWS.

England shortly on business.—Malay Mail 9th Sept.

MR. TANNER of the Kempsey Estate, Kuala Selangor, has again been visited by elephants. They damaged over six acres of young coconut trees. Two Malays followed the herd and state that they wounded some of them. This is, the third time that Mr. Tanner's Estate has been similarly patronised.

It is reported that the Inspectorship of Coconut Trees is to be a Federal appointment. Mr. Grieve, of Kapar, is making a collection of the various kinds of coconut beetles, which he will ultimately hand over to the officials.

There is a proposal on a certain tin mine to substitute Javanese for Chinese labour on the grounds that the petty prejudices of the latter are innumerable, that they throw their overburden to-day where they will have to move it to-morrow, and that their addiction to opium renders their retention undesirable.

There is a report that there is a particularly bad bit of coconut-beetle-infested ground immediately adjoining a Malay school in the neighbourhood of Kuala Selangor.

On Saturday night, about 8 o'clock, a panther visited the West Country Estate bungalow at Kajang and carried off one of the penates in the shape of a monkey.

Mr. Robertson of the Federated
