DEATH OF MR. WEE HAP LANG.

(From Our Own Correspondent)
Kuala Lumpur, Sept. 26.

A LINK with the old Selangor of the Capitans China and quickly-made fortunes, was severed yesterday with the death of 78-year-old Mr. Wee Hap Lang, at his residence in Ampang Road, Kuala Lumpur.

Proprietor of Chop Wong Woh Long, which owns large rubber plantations and tin mines, Mr. Wee came of a well-known Malacca Chinese family. It was after coming to Kuala Lumpur that he started mining and planting on a scale which almost emulated that of the famous Towkay Loke Yew with whom he was at one time associated.

He was a attorney of Selangor's Capitan China, Yap Kwan Seng.

During the War he raised funds to help Britain's cause and sat on the Rice Committee.

With Towkay Loke Yew he was instrumental in the foundation of the Kuala Lumpur Chinese Assembly Hall, now the centre of Chinese community life.

Mr. Wee was in the first batch of J.P.s nominated in the state. He served on the Kuala Lumpur Sanitary and Licensing Boards and the Selangor Chinese Advisory Board, and was a visiting justice to the Kuala Lumpur hospitals and gaol.

He leaves six sons and six daughters, several grandchildren and great grandchildren.
