AN ORANG PUTEH surprised the natives by making first-class ricscha No. 205 pull him right along the railway pier yesterday afternoon. Perhaps he was tired.

TOWKAY LAY KUAN SENG has paid $21,500 for 21 houses at Bukit Mertajam, believing that the Kedah railway line will advance the prosperity of that place.

KEDAH—In connection with the Rwa Hadji Holidays, all the public offices in the State of Kedah closed on Friday last, the 1st instant and reopen to-day.

THE PENANG POLICE raided a house at Bukit Mertajam on Saturday night, considering it a common gaming house. It was the Leang Seng saddlery shop. They took away some property.

A DISTINGUISHED HINDOO PANDIT.—A correspondent writes:—We have in our midst a distinguished Hindoo Pandit and Astrologer in the person of Mr. Ampalavaner. A Hindoo of the tip top quality breeding from Jaffna, Ceylon, Mr. Ampalavaner has formed several associations both in Ceylon and in India for the social reform of the Dravidian race. He is a man of liberal views in front of caste and
