Our Singapore correspondent wires that the finances of the Jimah Rubber Estate are improving and that it will soon have no debts.

From Tuesday's Malay Mail :

A letter has been received in Kuala Lumpur from Mr. E. A. Dench, of the Chandu Department, Kuala Lumpur, now at Home on leave. Mr. Dench is a second air mechanic in the Royal Flying Corps, and expects to be sent to the front at any moment.

We regret to learn that Mr. Frank Kenny, who was junior assistant on the Broome (Selangor) Rubber Plantations during 1912 and 1913, and who went to Canada in the latter part of 1913, met his death in action in France on August 12. He joined the 7th Batt. Canadian Expeditionary Force at the beginning of the war, and afterwards obtained a commission in the Munsters, and he was in this
