

Home > Newspaper Catalogue > The Straits Echo (Mail Edition) > 1920 > May > 12 > Page 779 > M.A.P.

M.A.P.

The Straits Echo (Mail Edition), 12 May 1920, Page 779

Share

Save Citation

Microfilm: NL1545

<< Previous Article

Next Article >>

M. A. P.

Mr. A. F. Richards is now attached to the Colonial Secretariat.

The death is announced of Mr. F. H. Rawlings, Vice-Provost of E-on.

Mr. G. E. Greig, of the F.M.S. Mines Department, is in Penang on his way home by the Innsbruck.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. W. H. Mackray, of the Federal Secretariat, has had to enter Kuala Lumpur Hospital.

Mr. V. H. Lanning, the well-known cricketer of Shanghai, is a passenger on board the Carmarthenshire from London.

Mr. R. O. Winstedt, acting Director of Education, who has been on an official visit to Penang, left for the F.M.S. this morning.

Mr. J. T. Dobbie, who has just relinquished the editorship of the Times of Malaya Ipoh, is now in Singapore awaiting a steamer to Australia, says the Malaya Tribune of Monday last.

The following passengers arrived by the Carmarthenshire from London this morning: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Pykett, jr., Mr. E. W. J. Tupper and Mr. A. K. E. Hampshire, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. M. Matthews and Miss Matthews.

Mr. A. W. Bean before his departure from this Colony sent the Archdeacon a token of his long and happy sojourn in Singapore in the shape of a cheque for $1,000, which is to be spent in the Cathedral at his discretion, says the Cathedral Monthly Paper.

From last night's T.O.M. :

Captain Philip Coote, a London journalist who served with distinction in the war, is expected in Ipoh early next week. He joins the Times of Malaya staff.

Chief Inspector H. Doel arrived in Ipoh yesterday from Klang and has assumed the duties of Chief Inspector, Ipoh. Chief Inspector Ryder has gone to Kuala Lumpur from Ipoh.

Mr. E. E. Colman, who returned yesterday from leave at Home by the Blue Funnel steamer, Idomeneous, has come to Ipoh as First Magistrate. Mr. Colman was Official Assignee in Penang prior to going Home on leave and holds a commission in the Malay Volunteers in Penang. He is held in the very highest esteem by all Malays in the Straits Settlements where most of his career in the Civil Service has been spent.

From last night's Malay Mail :

Mr. A. Davidson, of Rasak Estate, Batu Tiga, has been admitted to the European Hospital, Kuala Lumpur, suffering from blackwater fever.

The engagement is announced of Mr. Wee Kok Kwan, Chief Clerk, The Malayan Rubber Factories, Ltd., Seremban, eldest son of Mr. Wee Hap Lang, J. P., of Kuala Lumpur, and Miss Lee Poh Sim, second daughter of Mr. Lee Eng Choon, Penang. The marriage is fixed to take place in Penang on the 16 h inst.

The subordinate staff of Messrs. R. and D. Kindersley on April 29th presented a farewell address to Mr. H. R. Moullin, who is going Home on leave. The address was inscribed on a handsome silk scroll in a frame. The ceremony took place at the Kajang Estate Manager's bungalow. Among those present were the above-named and Major H. Gough, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. B. Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. S. Codner, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Thrupp, Messrs. F. B. Gough, E. S. Barba, V. E. H. Rhodes

