Anglo-Asiatic Rubber and Finance Trust.

The directors of the Anglo-Asiatic Rubber and Finance Trust, in their first annual report, covering the period from the date of incorporation to June 30, 1911, state:—The accounts for the period show a profit of £4,021, which it is proposed should be appropriated as follows:—To write off on account of purchase of options account, £2,000; dividend on 198,800 shares of 5 per cent. (less income-tax), £994; carry forward, £1,027. Since the formation of the company the directors have successfully floated the Berang (Selangor) Rubber Plantation, Limited. In addition to the cash profit the company holds an option over 100,000 shares of the uncalled capital of the Berang Company at par, for a period of four years from May 18, 1910. Mr. Arch Taylor (one of the directors) paid a visit to the East early in the year and secured an option on the Broome and Bangi Rubber Estate, in Selangor, F.M.S. This estate has an area of 2,040 acres, over 1,000 acres of which are planted with Para rubber trees eight years old and under.
