News has been received of the death in action of Capt. D. C. P. Kindersley, late of Kajang; also of Capt. J. R. Hill, formerly of the F.M.S. Institute of Medical Research. Captain Kindersley would have been forty-four years of age this year. He married the sister of Mr. E. W. Tyler, also of Kajang, and for her and for Mr. R. C. M. Kindersley the deepest sympathy will be felt. Capt. Hill did not remain very long in Malaya, but had time to make his mark at Rugby football, being one of the best wing three-quarters Selangor ever had.
