SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dove, of Penang, on December 27.

Captain Herbert Meade assumes command of the Royal Naval College at Dartmouth.

The Hon. Mr. Hayes Marriot has returned from leave and resumed his duties as General Adviser, Johore.

Capt. J. G. Follett, of the Singapore Pilot Association, returned from leave by the Teresias. He was accompanied by Mrs. Follett, Miss and Master Follett.

An Ipoh correspondent states that Capt. Ramplen Jones of the Eastern Smelting Co., Mrs. Ramplen Jones and the Misses Ramplen Jones, expect to leave for England about May and will be away eight months.

A marriage has been arranged between Miss Vera George, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil George, of Northwood, Middlesex, and Mr. F. Colin Raeburn, of Shanghai, second son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Raeburn, of St. Helier, Jersey, and formerly of Singapore.

The death occurred on Saturday, the 6th inst. of Mr. H. A. Morris at Sydney, Australia, in his 41st year. The deceased was a resident of Singapore for upwards of ten years and a planter on the Bukit Tunggu Estate, Bangi, F.M.S., for two years. He leaves a widow and sister.

The late Viscount Exmouth, who became a Flying Corps Officer in 1915, left £82,000 and bequeathed all the money lying at his credit at Cox's Bank on account of regimental pay to the Prince of Wales National Relief Fund, as he did not desire to derive money benefit from "such service as I was able to render to my country."

The following are titles officially assumed by those recently elevated to and in the Peerage:—Viscount Birkenhead to be Viscount Furneaux of Charlton in the county of Northampton and Earl of Birkenhead. The Right Hon. F. B. Mildmay to be Baron Mildmay of Flete of Totnes in the County of Devon. Sir Edward Alfred Goulding, Bart., to be Baron Wargrave of Wargrave Hall in the county of Berkshire.

Dr. A. H. F. Barbour is a passenger by the M. M. Angers to leave Colombo on the 15th inst. He is the president of the Scottish auxiliary of the English Presbyterian Mission, which his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Barbour, founded nearly 70 years ago. Professor Barbour last year relinquished his medical chair at the Edinburgh University, and has been with Mrs. Barbour, touring India, where their nephew, Sir F. A. Whyte, is the President of the Indian Legislative Assembly at Delhi. They are only passing through Singapore to re-
