Harun orders probe into raids on illegal settlers

KUALA LUMPUR, Sat. — The Mentri Besar, Dato Harun bin Haji Idris, today ordered an investigation into the raids on illegal farms at Sungei Limau Manis, near Kajang, by the Ulu Langat District Officer, Inche Hassan Ibrahim.

This followed a protest by the Speaker of the State Legislative Assembly, Raja Nong Chik bin Raja Ishak and the Assistant Minister of Education, Mr. Lee Siok Yew that Inche Hassan had acted against the orders of the Mentri Besar.

Projects

They claimed that the settlers had permission from Dato Harun to allow them time to harvest their crops.

Dato Harun said: "At a recent District Officers conference at Fraser's Hill, we decided that settlers could plant crops on State land if it had not been earmarked for development projects and if the settlers grew the crops for personal consumption and not for sale.

"This concession was granted in view of the Government's policy of encouraging the people to grow more food and be self-reliant." He had directed the State Secretary, Haji Megat Mahmud Ismail to investigate.

In Kajang Inche Hassan denied he had acted against orders when he raided the farms last Tuesday.

Impossible

"The land in question is not State land but a Malay reservation. In most cases, we ssue TOL licences as in the case of the settlers at Dengkil mukim to whom we issued 60 licences.

"But in the case of Sungei Limau Manis, it was impossible to issue such licences as the land was a Malay reservation." He said the settlers came from the Prang Besar Estate about 1½ years ago and planted bananas tapioca, chillies and vegetables on 200 acres.

The District Office had issued them quit notices. But the 52 families appealed to the Mentri Besar who approved their stay until harvest time.

"They harvested their crops about three months ago. Now they have planted new crops on the land.
