

Heritage

1980

Establishment of Nippondenso (M) Sdn.
Bhd.

The humble beginning of DENSO Malaysia can be traced back to April 1980, when a joint venture between DENSO Corporation, Japan and a local partner, where it was called Nippondenso Malaysia then.

1983

Start of Production - Starter Line

Starter products commenced production with the support from Japan.

Start of Production - Wiper Line

Quality has been the strength of our product and people since establishment.

First Starter Product Shipment to ASSB

Customer's satisfaction is our mission and we were proud with the first delivery to our customer.

1987

Start of Supply to PROTON

We are very proud to be associated with Proton, Malaysia first national car assembler.

1992

Completion of 2nd Thermal Systems Plant

New production facility to cater for the business expansion in the future.

1995

Achievement of 1 Million Radiator Production

The new facility enable us to achieve high production within a short period.

1996

Handover of Electronics Plant

Malaysia was among few electronic plant set-up outside Japan considering its strategic business environment and country's vast experience in electronic business.

First Machine Installation at Electronics Plant

Inspection by top management to ensure operation proceed as planned.

2004

ISO/TS 16949 Certification

Presentation

We were among the first automotive parts manufacturing company in Malaysia to receive this certification.

2006

DENSO Bus Aircond Model LD8-I Launching

DENSO Malaysia reached another milestone with the launched of DENSO new Bus Air-condition Model LD8-I by Deputy Finance Minister.

2007

Environment Award from Selangor State Government

DENSO Malaysia received the Selangor State Environment award from the Chief Minister. This award was given as a recognition to industries for effort towards environmental protection and preservation.

2009

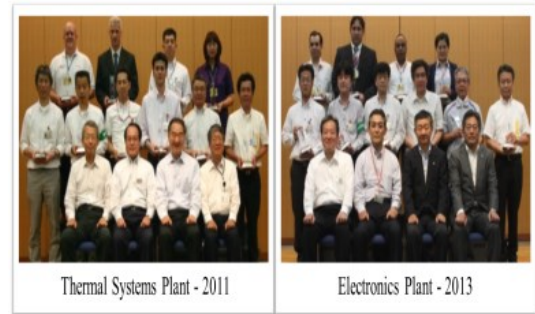

Prime Minister's Hibiscus Award

DENSO Malaysia won the highest environment award of the country. The award was given by Government to industries for meeting stringent environment requirement; domestic and global.

2011 & 2013

DENSO EF (Efficient Factory) Activity Award: Excellent Plant Asia & Australia

Thermal Systems and Electronics Plant of DENSO Malaysia were selected from Asia and Australia region to receive the award in 2011 and 2013 respectively.

2014

Start of Device Production

Expansion of electronic business with the start of Device Production on Monolithic Integrated Circuit.

2015

DENSO President Award

DENSO Malaysia was awarded the DENSO President Award for Outstanding Performance. The award is a recognition given to DENSO affiliate companies for extraordinary contribution and high accomplishments.

2018

National OSH Excellence Award 2018

DENSO Malaysia mark another new achievement by winning the National Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) Excellence Award 2018 under category Employer Excellence for Commuting Safety Management.

PERODUA Excellent Safety President Award (PESPA)

DENSO Malaysia were honoured in being on top among of the 62 vendors in total; as had bestowed with the one of customer's prestige award, the Perodua Excellent Safety President Award (PESPA).

Home >

Who we are >

DENSO in Malaysia >

Heri

DENSO
Crafting the Core

> Cookie Policy > Contact Us > Sitemap

> Privacy Policy > Terms of Use

2020 DENSO CORPORATION.