Can you light a real fire at the property?

Answered on 6 June 2020

Yes you can in both cottages ... I leave some logs, firelighters and matches in the cottage so that you can easily light a fire!

Is a pet welcome

Asked about: Two-Bedroom House • Answered on 16 October 2020

Hi yes pets are very welcome with a couple of house rules. No pets in the bedrooms and if left alone in the cottage in a crate please (I keep one here for guest use). I do have cats so if like my pup you have a cat chaser I would ask for caution!

When is the best time to visit your property for the perfect beach holiday?

All year round it's beautiful in all weathers!!!

Answered on 15 April 2021

Hi I'm looking to book for myself, hubby and dog for mid September. I know we are slowly moving out of restrictions but if there was further lockdowns or advice not to travel would we be able to get a full refund. Thanks

Hi there any covid related restrictions preventing your visit would mean a refund in full. I hope this helps and that you can visit in September have a look for me on discover NI

Answered on 16 November 2021

Hi there. What is the maximum number of adults that can be accommodated and do you have availability for 3 nights from Fri 22nd July 2022. Thank you

Hi there .... there are two cottages, one sleeps two (double bed) one sleeps four (one double bed and two singles) 2 bedrooms ensuite for each there is a camp bed but I usually only recommend this for kids. Hope t his helps. jo

Answered on 12 September 2020

Hello, thinking of staying for 2 nights, how much is it extra to bring my wee four - legged friend? Thanks.

There is a 40 cleaning fee that's all .... oh and not allowed in the bedroom thanks

Answered on 5 February 2021

Hi, I am trying to book the one bedroom cottage at Rockport Lodge for myself, hubby and our dog but there seems to be a problem?

Hi sorry to hear this what dates are you looking for and I can help?

Answered on 16 June 2021

Hi looking to book 2 nights with our dog in September. Wondering if you do offer free cancellation (read some of the answers that you do). Thanks.

Hi if you cannot travel due to covid restrictions I will refund in full up to the date you are arriving. The normal cancellation policy is in full up to 14 days prior to arrival date. Hope this helps. Joanne

Answered on 31 August 2020

Hi I am looking to book 2 cottages for aug 2021. Can you let me have availability Regards June

Hi at the moment both cottages are free in August have you specific dates and what are the numbers and I can do a quote for you?

O'Neill and Masefield Cottage, Rockport is the perfect place to leave the world behind; nestled right beside the sea at the north end of Cushendun's wide sandy beach, looking out to the Mull of Kintyre across the Irish Sea. The Georgian house dates back to 1813. Built by Lord General O'Neil as a hunting/bathing lodge, the two cottages were once the quarters of the Generals gilly and house servants. Our stables offer secure garaging for cycles and motor cycles. The cottage offers you the chance to relax in your own garden terrace, kick back by your own open fire or wonder at the ever changing seascape right outside your windows. It has panoramic views and its own private outdoor space to connect you with the dramatic landscape. Relax in our garden, take a walk or explore further into the village and beyond. The bedroom has a custom-crafted bed, a luxury mattress, Hungarian goose down duvet & pillows, and 600 percale soft and crisp organic bed linen, hand chosen by Secret Linens. Hand-woven throws and cushions complete the luxury welcome. We moved to Cushendun leaving the corporate world behind ... it is the perfect place to read, relax, listen to music, play board games or simply sit and look out across the dramatic Irish Sea....you may spot a pod of dolphins and look out for the seals. We enjoy a hike on foot or trek on horseback; or perhaps an unhurried game of golf at Cushendall or Ballycastle, or you could challenge yourself by taking on the world leading courses at Ballynahane and Ballytrewat. Dog walking and a peaceful morning sitting on the rocks by the sea waiting on the world leading courses at Fortrush and Portstewart. Dog walking and a peaceful morning sitting on the rocks by the sea waiting for cod or pollock to bite! A little way along the coast you'll find surfing or swimming in the bracing Atlantic in Benone followed by a slow lunch in front of a log fire in Harry's Shack on the beach in Portstewart. A hearty dinner just a short walk away in the seafood bistro 'The Little Black Door' at Mary McBrides. Soaking up culture, art, music, poetry, from small galleries and vibrant local festivals. We have a lot of landscape packed into our little part of the world. Cliffs, forests, beaches, and the iconic Rathlin Island all surrounded by the Irish Sea and Atlantic Ocean. Loughareema, also known as the Vanishing Lake sits high above on the mountain road Ballycastle. Three streams flow in but none flow out. The lough fills up to a fair size (400m long and 6m deep) after heavy rain, but the water gradually drains away through fissures in the underlying limestone, leaving a dry lake bed. The scenery ever-changing with the seasons, hours and weather. A short stroll or cycle away is the pretty seaside village of Cushendun hosting the famous Red Caves (Game of Thrones) and Mary McBrides (once the smallest pub in Ireland) and further along the coast is the fishing village of Cushendall. On all sides we're surrounded by sea, beach, cliff, forest, gorse, heather and hills with Fair Head, Torr Head and the magical Murlough Bay but a short cycle ride away. Within a short radius of Cushendun Bay we have ancient forests, the Giants Causeway, Gaelic Crosses, medieval castles, historic houses, wonderful historic gardens and breathtaking views.
