Masjid lama (The old mosque at) Sungai Ramal, Kajang

Assalamualaikum semua. Setelah membuat posting ke 191 di blogspot ini dengan tajuk Alhambra dan seterusnya (Alhambra and so on) : Replika di (Replicas at) Taman Tamadun Islam 2 minggu lalu, akhirnya hari ini baru saya terasa hendak menambah cerita. Mari! :]

Peace be upon you all. After making the 191th posting at this blogspot under the title Alhambra dan seterusnya (Alhambra and so on) : Replika di (Replicas at) Taman Tamadun Islam 2 weeks ago, at last today I felt like adding a new story. Come! :]

Dua minggu lepas saya telah pergi bersolat Jumaat di masjid ini, Masjid Jamek Haji Mat Saman di Kampung Sungai Ramal Luar, Kajang.

Two weeks ago I went for the Jumaat prayers at this mosque, the main mosque of Haji Mat Saman at Kampung Sungai Ramal Luar, Kajang.

Ada sesuatu yang menarik tentang masjid lama ini yang terletak berdekatan sempadan negeri Selangor-Perak, berhampiran bandar Tanjung Malim.

There's something interesting about this old mosque situated near the Selangor-Perak states borders, near the town of Tanjung Malim.

Gambar dan maklumat tentang tempat-tempat juga boleh didapati di blogspot CATATAN SI MERAH SILU dan BERPETUALANG KE ACEH. Gunakan kemudahan "search blog" yang terdapat pada kiri atas blogspot.

Pictures and information of places are also available in the blogspots CATATAN SI MERAH SILU and BERPETUALANG KE ACEH. Please use the "search blog" facility available at the top left side of the blogspots.

Masjid ini terletak di tepian lebuhraya yang menghubungkan bandar Kajang dengan Lebuh raya Utara-Selatan.

The mosque is situated besides the highway which connects the town of Kajang to the North-South Highway.

Walaupun saya sudah melalui jalan ini berpuluh kali mungkin beratus kali, seingat saya itulah kali pertama saya singgah ke masjid ini.

Although I've been pass this route tens of times, maybe hundreds of times even, as far as I could remember this is the first time I ever visited this mosque.

Baru saya tahu masjid yang agak cantik ini dibina tahun 1929.

Then only did I found out this rather beautiful mosque was built in the year 1929.

Apa yang pelik adalah satu perkara yang baru saya sedar di dalam.

What was weird was something I realised when I went inside.

Nampak tak apa-apa yang pelik?

Notice anything strange?

Lihat betul-betul kedudukan barisan saf yang tergaris pada hamparan di bawah berbanding kedudukan dinding masjid.

Look closely at the position of the red line of congregation as shown on the carpet in relation to the position of the walls of the mosque.

Nescaya anda akan nampak bahawa arah kiblat yang ditentukan pada garisan di hamparan berbeza sekitar 30 darjah dengan arah hadapan masjid, mungkin kerana kesilapan perkiraan ketika ia dibina 80 tahun dahulu. Oh, selamat menyambut Hari Raya Aidil Adha Isnin ini. Sekian....

Then you would see that the direction of the kiblah (the Ka'abah in Mecca where every Muslim face in prayers) as dictated by the lines on the carpet is different by about 30 per cent than the frontal direction of mosque, maybe because of some miscalculation when the mosque was built 80 years ago. Oh, happy celebrating the Muslim festive day of Aidil Adha this Monday. That's all...

About Me

Radzi Sapiee

A pure mathematics graduate from the University College of London who previously never made any writing except what was demanded at examinations suddenly found himself totally losing interest in hard science, pulled instead towards spiritual thoughts. Not knowing what next, he became a journalist for the major Malaysian daily The New Straits Times and actually stayed there for 5 years. After a while circumstances initiated him into the mysteries of Sufism, another word for Islamic spirituality. Also he was pulled to study his roots so much so that he started visiting and sleeping at old tombs all around Malaysia. Now he is a full-time writer but prefers to call himself a full-time bum as it is easier to explain what he is up to that way...

Bukan setakat masjid, makam lama pun ada (Not just mosques, there's also old tombs)

Ya. Seperti dimaklumkan pada tajuk di atas, gambar-gambar makam lama yang pernah disinggahi penulis turut terpapar di sini. Di bawah adalah beberapa contoh...

Yes. Just like mentioned in the title above, pictures of old tombs visited by the scribe are also shown here. Below are some examples...

mausoleum at Langgar, Kedah)

Pintu makam diraja ini biasanya terkunci setiap masa, kalau terbuka pun cuma 2-3 kali setahun untuk pelawat yang selalunya dari keluarga diraja. Lalu kenapa ia sudah siap terbuka ketika saya sampai?

The gates to this royal mausoleum is usually locked all the time, opened only 2-3 times a year for visitors which are often from the royal family. So why was it already opened when I arrived?

Makam diraja Perak (Perak royal mausoleum)

Kawasan pemakaman ini pula membawa makna tersendiri buat saya dan keluarga.

This tomb area in turn carries a certain meaning for me and family.

Makam (Tomb of) Tun Teja...

Tun Teja dikenali sebagai puteri cantik dari Pahang yang dibawa lari oleh pahlawan legenda Hang Tuah untuk diserahkan kepada Sultan Melaka. Jadi kenapa jasad beliau diabadikan di tengah sebuah sawah padi di Merlimau?

Tun Teja is known as the beautiful Pahang princess carried away by the legendary warrior Hang Tuah to be handed to the Sultan of Melaka. So why was her body laid to rest
